

Hearing aid maintenance & repairs.

Protect your investment in your hearing.

Your hearing changes over time. What you may not know is that your hearing aid needs to be adjusted periodically to match your changing hearing loss. And it does require regular servicing and cleaning. It may also need repairs over its lifetime.

Dr. Gail Linn at Potomac Audiology provides complete care not only for your hearing but also for your hearing aid. She is fully trained to test, fit, clean, adjust, service and repair virtually every kind of hearing aid. Dr. Linn's office features a repair suite with all the tools and materials necessary to keep your hearing aid working its best. But that's not all. If you purchase hearing instruments from Dr. Linn, she will provide you with these outstanding services:

- Complimentary home cleaning materials & storage cases
- Competitive pricing on batteries for your hearing aid
- Minor adjustments & repairs for your hearing aid
- In-office cleanings for your hearing aid

Remember, proper maintenance and repair and periodic cleanings are necessary to keep your hearing instrument working at its very best.
